OFFICE MOVED

The branch office of The Lexington Herald, I. W. Bush, manager, will be moved to-day from the Price store room on Main street, to the new Stuart building on Eighth street, adjoining the Standard Oil service station.

GASOLINE PIPE IGNITES

Leaking gasoline from a pipe line at the county rock quarry in East Paris, which caught fire, called the fire department Friday to the scene. One of the big county trucks caught on fire from the spreading gasoline. The flames were extinguished with small loss to property.

THUMB CRUSHED

Harry B. Clark, of Paris, L. & N. fireman, while on his run between Paris and Corbin, suffered amputation of his thumb when he struck it with a shovel while firing his engine. He completed his run to Paris where his injury was attended to by Dr. Chas. G. Daugherty, L. & N. physician.

HIGH CLASS HORSES SOLD

Allie G. Jones & Son, of near North Middletown, recently sold to Giltner Bros. of Eminence, two high-class gaited saddle mares, for Henry L. Fonda, of Charlottesville, Va. These mares were in the Jones show string, and were prominent winners. Mr. Fonda has a large farm in Virginia, and is a breeder of good livestock. During the past six months he has purchased from Giltner Bros. two shipments of Herefords and Holstein cattle for his farm.

BOURBON CALF FOR THE EXPERIMENT STATION

Goff & Rice, Bourbon county Shorthorn breeders, have presented the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station at the University of Kentucky, with a fine first-class Shorthorn steer calf for next year. The calf was first prize junior bull calf at the Blue Grass Fair this year, and was third in a big class at the Kentucky State Fair held at Louisville in September. The calf will be developed and shown by the Experiment Station next year.

OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE

The Conference of Older Colored Boys will convene in Paris November 3, 4 and 5. Delegates will be present from many of the leading cities of the State, and some splendid programs have been prepared for the occasion. The conference comes to Paris under the auspices of the Western High School, colored, and the sessions will be held at the different colored churches on Saturday and Sunday. The conference theme is based on Luke 2:57, and its main object is to better the community.

CHANGE OF LOCATION

The offices of the Paris Commercial Club will be moved to-day from their present location in the Price building on Main street, to a room in the Stuart & O'Brien building, on Eighth street, recently completed. The office of the Bourbon County Red Cross, which has been in the same room with the Commercial Club, will be moved temporarily to a room in the court house, but will probably be moved later on to the new Memorial Building at the corner of Broadway and High, when it is ready for occupancy.
